Assessments of conservation status at the European level (all biogeographical regions - EU25)

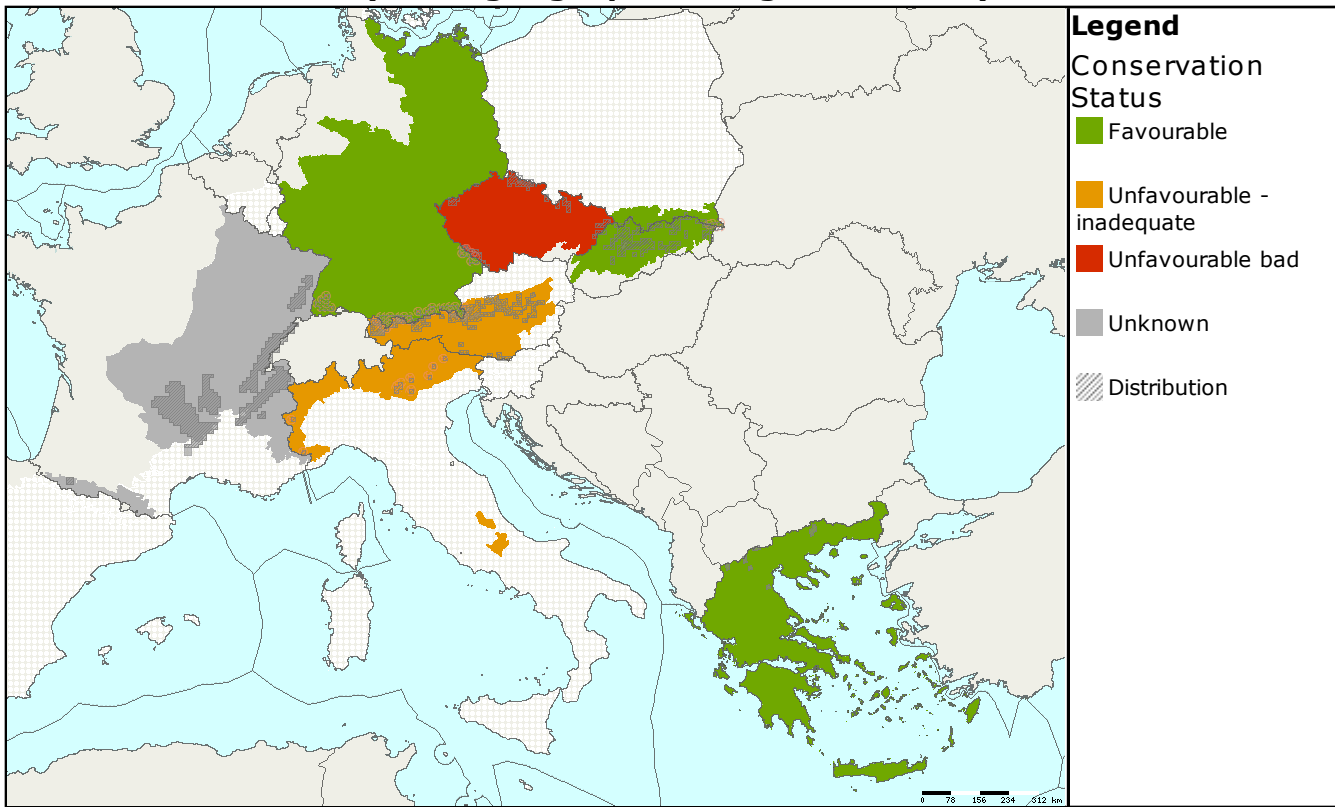

MS	Biogeographic Region	Conservation status assessment					Km ²	Trend in area
		Range	Area	Structure & function	Future prospects	Overall
EU25	ALP						366	+
EU25	CON						80	+
EU25	MED						4.8	=

Forests composed of low, low-branching beech (Fagus sylvatica) and sycamore (Acer pseudoplatanus) occurring at the tree limit in lower mountains with an oceanic climate of Western Europe and central and northern Central Europe.

The conservation status in the Alpine region is 'unknown', but due to the proportion of the habitat occurring in Austria and Italy it is possible to conclude that it is not favourable. The conservations status in the Mediterranean region is 'favourable'. The 'unfavourable bad' assessment for the Continental region reflects the situation in the Czech Republic, the only country where the habitat is in the 'bad' status.

Assessments of conservation status as reported by Member states (all biogeographical regions - EU25)
